Building Collaboration, Confidence and Creativity

Wednesday 16 - Friday 18 June

Hilton, Brisbane

WELCOME!

QASELCON21 Building Collaboration, Confidence and Creativity is your opportunity to access high quality professional learning that supports the education of students with disability across Queensland.

Your fellow delegates are special education leaders and decision makers who like you value this annual opportunity to network, expand your professional learning and connect with new and not so new friends.

Our theme Building Collaboration, Confidence and Creativity will be brought to life through the many keynote and concurrent sessions across three days.

THE CONFERENCE VENUE

The Hilton Brisbane is located in the heart of Brisbane City in the vibrant Queen Street Mall. It is only a 30 minute drive from Brisbane Airport and a 7 minute walk from Central train station.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

SIMON BREAKSPEAR is a researcher, advisor and speaker on educational leadership, policy and change. He is a Research Fellow at the Gonski Institute at UNSW, where he leads the education data lab. Over the last decade his speaking and leadership development work has given him the opportunity to work with over 100,000 educators across 10 countries.

RANDA HABELRIH is an author, speaker, advocate and advisor. She wrote the book 'Dealing with Autism' and is the Founder of MATES. As the proud mother of a child with autism who graduated high school, Randa teaches how you can make a difference in the world today. She openly shares her journey and embraces the philosophy of Different ... Not Less by Temple Grandin.

STEVE FRANCIS is expert in the complexities of leading effective schools. He is the first choice of Principals around Australia. Whether they want to enhance the skills of their leadership team or they want their staff to be genuinely and absolutely engaged, energised and enthused to REALLY create the difference that sets schools apart, they turn to Steve.
